TEEL PROJECT NOT TO BE ABANDONED

STANFIELD, Ore., Dec. 30.—That the decision of the circuit court declaring invalid the bond issue for the Teel Irrigation project will not cause the project to be abandoned was the opinion expressed by one of the directors after a careful survey of the situation. He said that most of the defects were technical. A rehearing will be asked and if it cannot be obtained it is likely that the case will be appealed to the supreme court.

The decision does not in any way invalidate the formation of the district but means, if the decision stands, that all action looking to the issuance of bonds must be gone through with again. This will take several weeks but it is believed that everything will be in shape for the beginning of work in the spring or early summer. Had the decision been favorable, operations would have been started at once.

AUTOMOBILE KILLS LAD WITH CHRISTMAS TREE

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 30.—Struck by an automobile while he was hauling home a Christmas tree, Albert Pedderson, 12 years old, is dead here of his injuries. Albert was run down and sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries. He was found by a passerby lying in the gutter while his little wagon and Christmas tree were broken and driven into the mud. The identity of the driver of the machine responsible for the boy's death has not been learned, although the police are exerting every effort to find the man.

Prof. Drew is spending the holidays with relatives in Tillamook, Ore.

BRAND RECORD NEEDS RENEWAL

Owners of brands of stock now on record in Umatilla county must renew the records at once or the brands will be subject to adoption by anyone. A law was passed by the last legislature requiring among other things that brands recorded by persons, firms or corporations, must be renewed within one year from the passage of the act.

Thus brands cannot now be adopted by anyone other than the one filing them except with the written consent of the owner, but unless renewed at once and none in this county have done so yet reports County Clerk Frank Saling, they will soon be cancelled automatically. In such a case any brand can be adopted by the first person making application for it. By renewal, now, the brand can be retained with the present owner. Verbal or written application with the county clerk will renew. This law was filed with the secretary of state, February 26, 1912, so that stockmen have about two months yet in which to renew their brands.

You can't avoid duty by taking a by path.

SOCIETY

With the O. A. C. cadet band playing the music, music of a rare quality, a large number of couples danced for two hours last evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall. This social affair was the sequel to the concert given earlier in the evening in the high school auditorium and many young people attended to take advantage of the opportunity to meet the cadets. This they were given for only about half of the collegians played at a time. The music was the best played at a local dance for a long time and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed. The O. A. C. boys were very much pleased at the reception given them in this city.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark Fletcher, 564 Flanagan street, was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday night when their daughter, Berdie Emmeline, and Ralph LeRoy Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hansen, of Pendleton, were married in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of both families. The bridesmaids were Misses Lulu and Lela Wells of Corvallis, and the other attendants were Victor Hansen, brother of the bridegroom, and Walter Ferguson. Rev. Benjamin Young, pastor of the First Methodist church, performed the ceremony.—Portland Oregonian.

Another large dancing party is planned for the near future. Cards are now being sent out for one to be held in the Eagle-Woodman hall on the evening of Thursday, January eighth. The hostesses will be Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny, Mrs. Wilson E. Brock, Mrs. Leon Cohen, Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock, and Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield.

Mrs. Frank Frazier and her father, "Uncle" George Webb, have returned to Pendleton after a Christmas visit in La Grande with Mrs. Jap H. Stevens, their sister and daughter, respectively. Mr. Webb will leave for Portland shortly and contemplates going on to California to spend the winter.

The Thursday Afternoon Club has revised its schedule of meetings so that the one which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. John Halley, Jr., on January eighth, will not be held until May fourteenth.

Mrs. C. J. Whitaker is visiting in Pullman as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dutton, former Pendletonians. Dr. Whitaker arrived home this morning.

Misses Mabel and Nora Manrud of Hermiston, returned to their home this morning after a visit of several days as guests of Miss Lotta Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson returned home this morning from Walla Walla where they visited briefly with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Trombley left Sunday for Portland to spend a few days.

NOLIN LOCALS.

NOLIN, Ore., Dec. 30.—E. A. Hendricks went to Klickitat county, Wash., to spend the holidays with the family of W. Orchard Hays, who were former residents of Nolin.

J. O. Kerr is spending the holidays in Pendleton.

O. F. Kerr returned from Pendleton this morning after an absence of four days.

Miss Cora Harle of Holdman is visiting old time friends in our midst. W. D. Allen, principal of the Spangle high school near Spokane, visited last week with his brother, H. M. Allen, the principal of the Nolin school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cramer of the Willows, in Morrow county, also visited our teacher at the same time. Mrs. Cramer is a sister and is teaching at the Willows.

Mrs. N. M. Baker, mother of Mrs. Will McCutchen, returned to her home in Vancouver, Wash., this morning after a two weeks' visit with her daughter.

Irwin Sheasley came down from Pendleton this morning to spend a few days with his brother Frank, who has a ranch four miles south of Nolin.

R. K. Klinger and Miss Nora Moehneke were married last Saturday at the residence of the bride's parents, 16 miles southwest of Nolin, by Rev. H. Mau. Ben Fisher and Miss Irene Moehneke acted as bridesmaid and bridesmaid. Among those who attended the wedding were Herman Moehneke and family, Ben Fisher, Miss Athleen Blum, Wm. Blum, Miss Lena Heft and Rev. H. Mau of Oregon City, Christ G. Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher of Nolin, and Henry Stabin of Echo. The young couple accompanied the Oregon City folks on train No. 2 for Oregon City where they will spend their honeymoon. All the above named parties who are now residents of Umatilla county, are relatives of the contracting parties and were at one time residents of Clackamas county.

Since the inauguration of the parcel post system the express companies have suffered heavy losses in their earnings. During the year 1912, 12 the profits of the leading companies were $5,772,000, but in 1913-14 they have fallen to $3,290,000.

ELEPHANT GRAY VELVET AND MOIRE.

Ribbon which is the most serviceable of hat trimmings is much used for knock-about or morning hats. The designs this year are so novel and so beautiful that it makes a most effective trimming. Wired loops, perpendicular and slant at innumerable angles are seen. Brocade ribbons, moire and plain colors are worn and often are edged with fur. The neat little shape pictured here was worn with a tailored suit in elephant grey. The hat was elephant grey velvet with square crown and narrow rolling brim, bordering on the "satlier" in shape. The bow placed in the front was of self-tone moire.

Tip-Top Cake.
One and a half cups sugar, two eggs, tablespoon butter, one cup milk, two and one-half cups of flour, two tablespoons baking powder, flavoring to suit. Beat for three minutes. Bake in moderate oven.—Los Angeles Express.

Sweeping Hint.
Threads and hairs on a carpet are hard to sweep up, but if the broom is brushed lightly round and round instead of straight along, the threads will be formed into a ball and may easily be picked off the broom.

Fire-Bricks As Heat Holders.
Although the iron of your gas and oil stoves is a good conductor of heat it is not a good radiator. To increase the radiating power of your stoves, fire-bricks or tile may be laid on top of the heaters. These bricks or tile are the best of radiators, holding the heat for hours, and will help materially in keeping your rooms at an even temperature, says the Pictorial Review.

Where the heat of the kitchen range is utilized to warm adjoining rooms place a number of fire-bricks in the oven. When the oven is not in use open the door and you will have a constant wave of heat even after the fire is out. On very cold nights these bricks may be wrapped in newspapers and flannel and used as bed warmers. The stove radiators that are used in the fireless cookers are also useful for this purpose.

Boll Soda In It.
When the inside of a silver teapot starts to tarnish, the following idea is very good to make it look like new, according to the Chicago Journal. Put a large piece of washing soda into the teapot and fill with boiling water. Then boil it for one hour over a spirit lamp and you will find it will become as bright inside as out, and the soda will not injure the silver in any way.

Seam Sewing.
When sewing seams that are inclined to stretch, pull them slightly from you with the left hand and the threads will not break after they are sewed.—Los Angeles Express.

Needle Notes.
A woman writes that in making buttonholes in children's underwear she has found that if she makes an eyelet in each end of the buttonhole it does not wear out as quickly as in the ordinary way, says the Dallas News.

To turn a hem in heavy goods or material that does not crease well, such as serge, turn the hem over a length and trim the hem to the desired width. Instead of turning second time, bind the edge with a bias fold of cambric or lawn the same shade and stitch through the binding. The seam will be flat and make a much neater finish than if turned in the old way.

Old Time Rooms.

If you have a room hung with the imitation of old English chintzes, invest in one of the lovely fruit dishes lined with chintz, says the Washington Herald.

Some of the dishes are big, rather shallow bowls with a band of openwork at the top. Any of them would make a charming addition to the old-fashioned room hung in quaint chintz.

the benefit of foreign markets, according to a report issued by the bureau of mines. From Colorado and Utah, radium-bearing deposits known in the world. The report said, there was shipped to Europe in 1912 ores valued commercially at $792,000.

In this time only one American company was engaged in making radium and its product has only recently been offered for sale. This, the report added, "opened to foreign medicine and science opportunities in this most promising field that have been denied to our own people except by purchasing the manufactured radium compounds at an almost prohibitive price."
